Description: Located on Grover Road near Tar Heel in northern Bladen County North Carolina, this affordable hunting tract offers great hunting for deer and turkey and has potential for good duck hunting. Being located on a dead end soil road, the area is quiet and private. The tract is primarily bottomland along Goodman Swamp with a nice high area suitable for a cabin or hunting camp. A BioLogic food plot planted on the old logging deck would be a wildlife magnet. Tar Heel is only minutes away for food and supplies. Fayetteville is also a short drive from the property. If you are looking for a nice hunting tract to get ready for deer season, take a look at this one.
