Description: Located on Highway 53 and Cassius Smith Road near Kelly in Bladen County North Carolina, this farm is mostly cleared tillable land. The property is conveniently located to Elizabethtown, White Lake, and Wilmington. Elizabethtown is the county seat and offers shopping, restaurants, and a hospital. With close proximity to the Cape Fear River, building an impoundment would produce some great duck hunting. The Cape Fear River is well known for excellent catfish, panfish and bass fishing. Deer and doves can also be hunted on the farm. Soil types include Roanoke, Lakeland, Altavista, Centenary, Croatan, and Wasda. No deed restrictions. If you are looking for a great agricultural and hunting farm with potential home sites along Highway 53 this is one to take a serious look at!
